2016 Arkansas All-State Clinicians

DR. GENE H. MOON – CHAMBER ORCHESTRA

Dr. Gene H. Moon joined the faculty at Stephen F. Austin State University as Director of Orchestras and Musical Director of Opera in 2006. Prior to his appointment, Moon served as music director and conductor of the Oklahoma Youth Symphonies, piano faculty and opera conductor at the University of Central Oklahoma and assistant orchestra director for the Mid-Del Public Schools in Midwest City, OK. The Orchestra of the Pines, the university’s flagship orchestral ensemble, performs four classic concerts, two choral masterworks and a full opera production each season. In addition to his concert obligations, Moon teaches graduate conducting and orchestra administration, coaches chamber groups, opera scenes and oversees student teaching for the string area. He currently serves as the area coordinator for the strings area. Moon also serves as chair for the prestigious Schmidbauer Young Artist Competition, an annual festival inviting the most talented high school musicians from around the world competing for prize money and a guest solo performance with the Orchestra of the Pines.

Active in the community, Moon also serves as music director and conductor of the East Texas Youth Orchestras, Inc., which serves students from around the East Texas region in a full orchestra program for the most talented and gifted musicians. He has led orchestras and performed as soloist and chamber musician throughout the country and overseas. Dr. Moon is highly sought after as guest clinician with recent engagements including region orchestras throughout the state of Texas and surrounding states, the 2012 North Central Honor Orchestra in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, the 2014 and 2011 Louisiana All-State Orchestra, a 2010 engagement conducting the Gang Nam Symphony Orchestra in Seoul, South Korea and the 2008 TPSMEA (Texas Private Schools) All-State Orchestra. His upcoming engagements include the 2016 Arkansas All-State Orchestra and an international appearance with the University of Macau Orchestra.

Born of Korean heritage, Dr. Moon began his piano studies at age six and string studies at age nine. His teachers and mentors include pianists Ms. Jan Pokorny Steele, Dr. Dai Wook Lee, Dr. Deirdre O'Donohue and Dr. Edward Gates, violists Dr. Ralph Morris and Dr. Matthew Dane, and maestros Dr. Roger Strong, Mr. John Jeter and Dr. Jonathan Shames.

DR. MICHAEL UNDERWOOD – SECOND JAZZ BAND

Dr. Michael Underwood is in his 13th season as Principal Trombone of the Arkansas Symphony Orchestra and tenth year as Instructor of Music at the University of Arkansas at Little Rock. Dr. Underwood is the director of the UALR Jazz Ensemble. Since its inception in 2012, the band has been featured at the Dardanelle Jazz Festival and the Arkansas State Jazz Festival. He has composed six jazz etudes for the Arkansas High School All-State competition. He has been a regular featured performer at the Afterthought Jazz Club in Little Rock as well as the lead trombonist for the ASO Big Band. He served in the United States Air Force “Band of the Golden West,” where he was featured soloist on two Commanders Jazz Ensemble tours.

Dr. Underwood performed the Arkansas premiere of Christian Lindberg’s Mandrake in the Corner with the Little Rock Wind Symphony. He also was a featured soloist with the Natural State Brass Band, a fellow performer at the Joseph Alessi Trombone Seminar, and principal trombonist in both ASO and USAF Band of the Golden West compact-disc recordings. His arrangements have been performed by the ASO, at the Joseph Alessi Seminar, and the Big XII Regional Trombone Conference. In addition, he has published three trombone quartets of Debussy’s piano music. Dr. Underwood has recorded and published all three sets of the Arkansas All-State etudes. He has performed in the Tulsa Symphony, Monterey, Mexico Symphony, and many regional symphonies in Michigan, Ohio, and Texas. Master classes include performances for Heinz Fadie, Jay Friedman, John Kitzman, Christian Lindberg, Ralph Sauer, and Ben Van Dyk.

Dr. Underwood graduated cum laude from Lawrence University (Wisconsin), earned two master’s degrees from Bowling Green State University (Ohio), and a DMA from the University of North Texas. His teachers include Nick Keelan, Vem Kagarice, Paul Hunt, Joseph Alessi, and John Kitzman. He is married to Karla Fournier, second clarinetist in the ASO; he enjoys traveling, running, and reading presidential history.

DR. TONY BAKER – FIRST JAZZ BAND

Considered one of the finest trombonists of his generation, Tony Baker is currently Professor of Trombone at the University of North Texas College of Music. Previously, Mr. Baker served as Assistant Professor of Trombone at Ohio University and as Visiting Assistant Professor of Trombone and Euphonium at Kent State University. A native of Little Rock, Arkansas, he is an alumnus of the University of Minnesota and the University of Central Arkansas. Mr. Baker’s professional experience is as varied as it is substantial. Currently a member of the Dallas Opera Orchestra, he has performed with ensembles such as the Minnesota Orchestra, the New Hampshire Music Festival Orchestra, and the Dallas Symphony Orchestra, the Columbus Symphony Orchestra, the Akron Symphony Orchestra, the Arkansas Symphony Orchestra, and the Duluth-Superior Symphony Orchestra.

As a jazz musician Mr. Baker has performed with groups such as the Woody Herman Band, the Duke Ellington Orchestra and the Jimmy Dorsey Orchestra. He has also performed on stage with artists such as Wynton Marsalis, Steve Turre, Terry Gibbs, John Fedchock, Chris Vadala, Butch Miles and Jiggs Whigham. As a jazz clinician, Mr. Baker is on the faculty of various summer jazz workshops, including the University of North Texas Combo Workshop. In 2015 Mr. Baker performed as a guest jazz artist at events such as the American Trombone Workshop and the International Trombone Workshop in Valencia, Spain. In January of 2013 Mr. Baker served as the jazz trombone faculty for the Summer Course in Brasilia (CIVEBRA) in Brasilia, Brazil. He was the first jazz trombonist to hold this position in the 35-year history of this event. He also taught at the 2013 and 2014 Oklahoma Jazz Camps. Mr. Baker has been a guest artist at the Texoma Jazz Fest, the Redbud Jazz Festival, and the Capital University Jazz Week, to name a few. Mr. Baker served as the All-State Conductor of the 2004-2005 Minnesota All-State Jazz Ensemble. Mr. Baker has recorded with the Sounds of Blackness and can be heard with this group on their Grammy-nominated compact disc, Time for Healing. From October 1997 to April 2000 Baker was lead trombonist of the Columbus-based professional big band Jazz-to-Go. It is Mr. Baker’s profound pleasure to be the 2016 Arkansas All-State Jazz Band director.
DR. TUCKER BIDDLECOMBE – MALE CHORUS

Tucker Biddlecombe is Associate Professor and Director of Choral Activities at Vanderbilt University’s Blair School of Music, where he serves as conductor of the Vanderbilt Chorale and Symphonic Choir, and teaches courses in choral conducting. In addition, he serves as Director of Blair’s five-year Bachelor of Music/Teacher Education degree (Ma5) program offered in conjunction with the Peabody College of Education at Vanderbilt. Since joining the faculty in 2012, Dr. Biddlecombe has re-invigorated choral activities at the Blair School of Music. He has conducted performances of Creation (Haydn), Chichester Psalms (Bernstein), Schicksalslied (Brahms), Requiem (Fauré), Triptych (O’Regan), and Mass of the Children (Rutter). He has also presented a lecture-concert on the music of Robert Shaw and Alice Parker, a centenary celebration of Benjamin Britten, and a lecture-concert of Ariel Ramirez’s Misa Criolla in partnership with Vanderbilt’s Center for Latin American Studies. In 2014 he was the recipient of the Blair School’s Faculty Excellence Award. In 2015 he founded Collegium, a professional choral ensemble based in Nashville.

Prior to his time at Vanderbilt, he spent ten years as a public school music educator. Ensembles under his direction have performed to acclaim at state and division conventions of the American Choral Directors Association. He is an active guest conductor, having conducted honor choirs throughout the country, as well as serving as clinician to over 100 choirs touring Nashville. He has recently presented workshops for the Alabama Vocal Association, the Florida Music Educators Association, and conducted residencies with San Jose State University and the University of Tennessee. Dr. Biddlecombe has been engaged to conduct all-state choirs in Alabama, Arkansas, and New York in 2016.

He holds the Ph.D. in Music Education and a Master of Music in Choral Conducting from Florida State University, and a Bachelor of Music degree from the Crane School of Music at SUNY Potsdam. He is a native of Buffalo, NY.

DR. CAROL KRUEGER – FEMALE CHORUS

Carol Krueger is the Director of Choral Activities at Valdosta State University where she oversees the choral program and serves as Associate Conductor to the Valdosta Symphony Orchestra. Previous faculty appointments include: Emporia State University, Florida Southern, University of South Carolina and the University of Montevallo. A native of Wisconsin, Krueger received her bachelor’s degree in Music Education from the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh and both an M.M. and D.M.A. in Choral Conducting from the University of Miami.

An active clinician, adjudicator and guest conductor, Krueger has most recently conducted festivals and honor choirs at the collegiate, high school and middle school levels in fifteen states. In addition, Dr. Krueger served as the guest conductor of Vivaldi’s Gloria in Carnegie Hall, the Adult Chancel Choir and Chamber Singers at Montreat Presbyterian Association of Musicians Conference (2010), and multiple performances of Epcot’s Candlelight Processional and Massed Choir Program. During 2015-16, Krueger will conduct honor choirs in Maryland, Virginia, Oklahoma, and Arkansas.

Krueger has presented interest sessions at the American Choral Directors National Convention in New York, the OAKE (Kodaly) National Convention in Charlotte, the ACDA Southern Division Conventions in Nashville and Louisville, the Southern Division MENC Convention in Charleston, the North Central Division ACDA in Madison, the Eastern Division ACDA in Providence, the Eastern Division NAME in Hartford, as well as interest sessions or workshops in Iowa, Illinois, Vermont, Tennessee, Massachusetts, Virginia, California, Texas, New Hampshire, Minnesota, Wisconsin, South Dakota, North Dakota, Maine, Georgia, Kansas, Pennsylvania, Florida, Alabama, and South Carolina. Krueger is also widely recognized for her work with music literacy. Oxford University Press publishes her book, Progressive Sight Singing.

DR. ALAN RAINES – MIXED CHOIR

Alan Raines is the Mary Gibbs Jones Professor of Music and Director of Choral Activities at Baylor University. He has guest conducted all-state and honor choirs, both professional and collegiate choruses, and given presentations in over 36 states. Raines’ choirs have received invitations to perform for regional and national conventions of ACDA, NCCO, MENC, and the Texas Music Educators Association. Raines conducts the 64-voice select A Cappella Choir, the Chamber Singers, and administrates the varied program of seven choirs, consisting of nearly 400 singers. He is the editor of the Baylor University Collegiate Choral Series with Morningstar Press and the Alan Raines Choral Series with Alliance Music Publications.

Raines and colleague Isabelle Demers recently recorded the Durufle Requiem with the A Cappella Choir in Paris, France at St. Etienne du Mont, Durufle’s church. It was the first time an American choir has been given the opportunity. Raines is a graduate of UCLA and a student of Donald Neuen. He resides in Waco with his wife Frances and their four sons, Lawson, Sanders, Carter, and Ford.

STEVEN BYESS – ORCHESTRA

A dynamic and passionate conductor, Steven Byess is recognized for his distinguished musicianship, innovative programming, passion for music education, and commitment to outstanding educational programs. He has been hailed by critics as “masterful and brilliant,” “creating the epitome of instrumental elegance,” “a talented interpreter, able to capture the sweep of a piece without neglecting detail,” and capturing “the full spirit and vitality of the score perfectly.”

In addition to serving as Music Director of the Portland Columbia Symphony Orchestra, he is Music Director of the North Mississippi Symphony Orchestra, Music Director of the Arkansas Philharmonic Orchestra, Associate Music Director of the Ohio Light Opera, and Principal Guest Conductor of the Sinfonia Chamber Orchestra of Krakow, Poland. He formerly held the post of Cover Conductor for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. With the Ohio Light Opera, he has conducted, to critical acclaim, over 500 performances of 65 operas, operettas, and musical theater works, and is featured on nineteen CD recordings by Newport Classics, Albany Records, and Operetta Archives.

Mr. Byess received his Bachelor of Music Degree in classical performance and jazz studies from Georgia State University, and his Master of Music degree from the Cleveland Institute of Music, where he studied conducting with Louis Lane and Carl Topilow, bassoon with George Goslee and David McGill, violin with Carol Ruzicka, and piano with Olga Radosavleivich. He also attended the Pierre Monteux Memorial School for Conductors under the tutelage of Maître Charles Brück. In addition to his conducting studies with Louis Lane, Robert Shaw, and Carl Topilow, he has worked under the auspices of the League of American Orchestras with such noted conductors as Lorin Maazel, Zubin Mehta, Daniel Barenboim, Pierre Boulez, and Otto Werner Mueller. Mr. Byess was an assistant to conductor Robert Shaw at the Shaw Institute in Souillac, France.

Steven Byess is a passionate advocate for the arts, much sought after for his speeches on the arts, music, and education. An important community leader, he has created and organized collaborations with numerous choruses, chamber music ensembles, and festivals of the arts. He wrote, co-directed and is featured in a PBS presentation entitled Count On It!, which is designed for children grades K-3, and shows the correlation of music to mathematics. He is a conductor of the Carnegie Hall Weill Music Institute Link Up orchestral education concerts, performing in multiple US communities for over 20,000 children in 2014-2015.

MARC MUELLER – CONCERT BAND
Mr. Marc Mueller assumed his duties as Director of Bands at Southwestern Oklahoma State University in the fall of 2011. At SWOSU he is the Conductor of the SWOSU Wind Symphony and the Pride of the Great Southwest Marching Band. In addition, he teaches courses in Instrumental Conducting, Wind Band Literature, Instrumental Music Pedagogy and Instrumental Methods as well as Student Teacher Preparation and Supervision.

Mr. Mueller received a Bachelor of Music degree from South Dakota State University and a Master of Music Education and Conducting from the University of Oklahoma. Prior to his appointment at Southwestern, he served as Director of Bands at Moore High School for 22 years. Under his leadership the Moore program consistently earned the highest of honors. The program competed nationally and was named a Bands of America Grand National Championship Semi Finalist on three different occasions and was an OBA State Championship Finalist for 21 consecutive years.

Mr. Mueller is an enthusiastic advocate of public school music education. He has conducted numerous honor and all region bands and is active nationally as an adjudicator and clinician. Mr. Mueller presents and participates at state education conferences and currently serves as the State Faculty Advisor for the Collegiate National Association for Music Education, (CNAfME) and is on the Central Oklahoma Band Directors (CODA) Board of Directors.

Mr. Mueller has a passion for the creation of new wind band compositions through numerous commission projects. He has been involved in world premiere performances of new works and collaborations with composers such as David Maslanka, John Mackey, Jonathan Newman and Scott McAlister. In 2014, the SWOSU Wind Symphony presented the world premiere of David Maslanka’s “REQUIEM.” As an arranger, Mr. Mueller has over 200 arrangements to his credit and maintains an active role as a consultant and adjudicator. He also writes original marching band shows for numerous high school and collegiate bands.

BILL BRENT – SYMPHONIC BAND
Bill Brent is currently the Director of Operations and Special Projects for the Alice E. Dear School of Creative and Performing Arts. Prior to his appointment to his current position, he served for 30 years as the Director of Bands and for 27 years as the Director of the School of CAPA. During his tenure, the band program grew from 48 members to more than 300. With his leadership, the School of Creative and Performing Arts was endowed with more than $2.5 million in private scholarship funds and $4 million in grants. In addition, all academic programs in the School of CAPA were accredited by their national accrediting agencies, and the Board of Supervisors for the University of Louisiana System designated the School as an “Area of Excellence”. Prior to coming to Northwestern, Mr. Brent was the Director of Bands at McCallum High School in Austin, Texas, where the marching band was twice named in the Top Five in the University Interscholastic League “State Marching Contest” and the symphonic band was named in the Top Ten in the Texas Music Educator’s Association “Honor Band” competition. Mr. Brent holds the Bachelor of Music Education and Master of Music degrees from the University of Texas, Austin. Among his professional organization memberships are the Louisiana Music Educators Association, Music Educators National Conference, Texas Music Educators Association, the Texas Bandmasters Association, the College Band Directors National Association and Phi Beta Mu. The National Council of Kappa Kappa Psi honored Mr. Brent with the A. Frank Martin Award in 1997 and in 2002, Mr. Brent received the highest honor bestowed by the University to members of the faculty when he was presented with the Northwestern “Distinguished Service Award”. In 2007, Mr. Brent was inducted into the Louisiana Music Educators Association “Hall of Fame” and in 2011, he was inducted into the Louisiana Music “Hall of Fame”. In 2012, he was elected to membership in the prestigious “American Bandmaster’s Association”.

RICHARD FLOYD – WIND SYMPHONY
Richard Floyd is enjoying his 53rd year of active involvement as a conductor, music educator and administrator. For 31 years Floyd served as State Director of Music for the University Interscholastic League at the University of Texas at Austin where he coordinated all facets of secondary school music competition for some 3500 performing organizations throughout the state. He currently holds the title of Texas State Director of Music Emeritus. His other professional endeavors include the post of Musical Director and Conductor of the Austin Symphonic Band. Former positions include Professor of Conducting and Wind Ensemble Conductor at the University of South Florida, Director of Bands at Baylor University and 11 years as a member of the music faculty in the nationally acclaimed Richardson, Texas school band program.

Mr. Floyd has toured extensively throughout the United States, Canada, Australia and Europe as a clinician, lecturer, adjudicator and conductor including appearances in 43 states and 10 foreign countries. His areas of primary interest include conducting, wind band repertoire and the entrenchment of performance-based music programs within the academic framework of the secondary school curriculum.

In 2002 he was the single recipient of the prestigious A.A. Harding Award presented by the American School Band Directors Association in recognition of his significant and lasting contributions to the school band movement. The Texas Bandmasters Association named him Texas Bandmaster of the Year in 2006 and also recognized him with the TBA Lifetime Administrative Achievement Award in 2008. Most recently he received the Texas Music Educators Association Distinguished Service Award in 2009 and was inducted into the Bands of America Hall of Fame and Texas Phi Beta Mu Hall of Fame in 2011. In December of the same year he was awarded the Midwest International Band and Orchestra Clinic Medal of Honor for distinguished service and contributions to bands, orchestras and music education. In 2013 he was elected to the National Band Association Academy of Wind and Percussion Arts recognizing excellence and exceptional service to bands.
