Greetings –

Welcome to the ASBOA State Marching Contest. Thank you for coming to support over 7500 young musicians and their directors. Outstanding programs are not created by accident, but through hours of preparation by students and teachers who are supported by parents, schools, administrators, and communities. We thank all who have helped make this event happen.

Five nationally recognized adjudicators will evaluate each band's performance. The groups will be evaluated on musical and visual aspects. At the end of each day's competition the following awards will be presented: First Division Band ratings; First, Second, and Third Place in each classification; High Music Score in each classification; and High Visual Score in each classification.

An event of this magnitude is not possible without the assistance of countless individuals and corporate sponsors. Please refer to the list of acknowledgments below, and express your appreciation to them.

Again, thank you for supporting this event.

Sincerely,

Dewayne Dove

Matthew McCready – Music Ensemble & Chief Judge

Matthew McCready is currently the Director of Fine Arts for Union Public Schools in Tulsa, Oklahoma. Prior to his appointment as Fine Arts Director, he served as the Director of Bands at Union and also at Blue Valley Northwest High School in the Kansas City area. McCready maintains an active schedule around the country as a clinician, adjudicator, conductor, and musician. Matt is a two-time graduate of The University of Kansas, earning both a bachelor's and master's degree in music education. He wrapped up his collegiate education by completing a Doctorate in Educational Leadership from Oklahoma State University.

Matt stubbornly began his journey in music education with piano lessons around age 5. This led to him starting on trombone in elementary school and ultimately evolved into his career as a band director and music educator. Considering his mother was an elementary general music teacher and both his father and uncle were band directors, he seemed destined to get into the "family business." Matt owes his career to those that have mentored, shared, encouraged, advised, directed, and generally taught him everything he knows over the course of his career. The list is WAY too long to share here but includes so many special individuals he is eternally grateful for.

McCready is an avid Kansas Jayhawks, KC Chiefs, and KC Royals fan. Matt is grateful to work in the same district as his wife Amy, who is also an administrator for the Union District.

Patrick Flynn – Music Effect

Patrick Flynn recently retired after a 37-year career as a band director, including 35 years as the Director of Bands at Portage Central High School in Portage, Michigan. He received his Bachelor of Music degree from Western Michigan University and his Master of Education degree from Grand Valley State University.

In 2020 he was voted District 11 Teacher of the Year by members of the Michigan School Band & Orchestra Association (MSBOA) and has been a Member Emeritus of MSBOA since 2021. Other memberships include the Central States Judges Association (CSJA), the Michigan Competing Bands Association (MCBA), and the Michigan Scholastic Marching Bands (MSMB) where he serves as an adjudicator and judge coordinator. He is in demand as a clinician, conductor, adjudicator, and consultant for high school concert and marching bands throughout Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Ohio, Virginia, Tennessee, Arkansas, Hawaii, and Florida. During the summer months he travels throughout the country with Drum Corps International (DCI) as their Contest Director, Event Coordinator, On-Site Manager, and Event Staff member. His wife, Rennee, is also a Contest Director and the Chief Tabulator for DCI. She co-taught instrumental ensembles with Patrick in the Portage Central Middle School and High School for 27 years, being named the MSBOA District 11 Teacher of the Year in 2023. Patrick recently began teaching part-time in the Irving S. Gilmore School of Music at Western Michigan University, working with student interns as an observer, evaluator, and instructor.

He and Rennee live in Kalamazoo, Michigan, with their two cats, Cosmo and Maui, and are also landscaping enthusiasts.

Bryan Crisp – Music Effect

Bryan Crisp has toured the United States extensively as a solo artist and performs regularly with major orchestras including the Cincinnati Symphony, Cincinnati Chamber Orchestra, Cincinnati Opera, Dayton Philharmonic, Cincinnati Ballet Orchestra, and the Broadway Across America productions in the Cincinnati/Dayton, OH areas. Bryan holds two undergraduate degrees from Tennessee Technological University in music education and music performance, and a master of music degree in trumpet performance from the University of Cincinnati College-Conservatory of Music (CCM). Mr. Crisp can be heard on ten recordings including the latest available through Summit Records entitled Classic Hymns DCD428, 2005. Bryan is proud to be a Yamaha Performing Artist.

As a music educator, Mr. Crisp is in demand as a marching arts consultant, brass educator, music advisor, program coordinator, score editor, and a clinician for national and state conferences. Bryan is an active adjudicator with Drum Corp International (DCI), Bands of America (BOA), Winter Guard International (WGI), International Trumpet Guild (ITG), and the National Trumpet Competition. He is founder and artistic director of Tri-State Ensembles, a program devoted to chamber music education for high school students in the Cincinnati area.

Bret Mascaro – Visual Ensemble

Bret Mascaro completed a full career as a music teacher, band director, and Music Department Coordinator for the Methacton School District. During that time, Bret served as a Pennsylvania Music Educators Association District President and Festival Coordinator and has twice been a clinician at the PMEA Conference. In the interim, he spent four years as Director of Education for the Zeswitz Music Company in Reading, Pennsylvania. Most recently, Bret was an adjunct professor and supervisor of student teachers at West Chester University in Pennsylvania.

Bret Mascaro has served as an adjudicator across the United States, Canada, and Japan for organizations such as Bands of America, Winter Guard International, Drum Corps International and several state pageantry associations. Bret has been a designer or instructor for the Crossmen, Troopers, and Bluecoats Drum and Bugle Corps and many high school bands in Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

J.R. Carlisle – Visual Effect

Dr. John Carlisle is the principal and former director of bands at Hannan Junior Senior High School in Ashton, West Virginia, and owner of Carlisle Educational Services. He has 38 years of experience as a teacher, principal and educational consultant. During his teaching career, his bands consistently received superior ratings, were selected to represent West Virginia in the 2025 Pearl Harbor Memorial Parade in Hawaii, and won a Sudler Shield award. Dr. Carlisle has won numerous honors and awards including the 1996 Greene County Ohio Teacher of the Year, the 2024 Hannan JSHS Teacher of the Year, and was a 2025 national semifinalist for the Grammy's Music Educator award. Carlisle Educational Services has worked with bands throughout the country adjudicating in 42 states and the BOA National Championships. Dr. Carlisle is a founding member of Tri-State Circuit for Pageantry Arts and Tri-State Judges Association, and was the education coordinator for Carolina Indoor Association. He was also judging coordinator for Nebraska State Bandmasters. Dr. Carlisle has adjudicated for BOA, DCI, and WGI. He adjudicated Drum Corp Europe's Championships and drum corps at Music Arts Festival, in Kyoto, Japan. He has presented at music educator conventions in Indiana, Kansas, Nebraska, New Jersey, South Dakota, and West Virginia. Dr. Carlisle received a Bachelor of Arts in Music from Marshall University, a master's degree in Education Leadership from West Virginia University, a Masters of Business Administration from Ashford University, and a doctorate in Educational Leadership from Grand Canyon University.

Christopher Babashka – Field Manager

Chris Babashka has been actively involved in the marching arts for over 34 years; including four years marching in The Big Red Marching Machine at Illinois State University and three years with the Velvet Knights Drum and Bugle Corps from Anaheim, California. Chris is currently an adjudicator and contest director with Bands of America, adjudicator and contest coordinator for The Midwest Color Guard Circuit, and adjudicator at multiple performance arts events across Illinois and the United States. He is also a contest coordinator and event safety manager for Drum Corps International. Chris received a Bachelor of Science degree from Illinois State University in 1995 and a Master of Science degree in 1996. He completed his MBA in healthcare administration from Benedictine University in 2013. In his spare time, he enjoys being retired as a speech pathologist and healthcare leader in Chicago, and most importantly, enjoys spending time with his family and four children.
